

Follow up reading and research collateral

Take the quiz to test your knowledge of the Black History Month tutorial “How Blues Dominated The World”

Black History Month Quiz

Follow up reading

These topics were briefly covered in the presentation. To find out more read the following articles;

Blues Music

The Origins of Blues Music

Delta Blues

Harmonica Blues

Race Music

Chicago Blues

British Blues

Blues Artists

There is more information available on the Blues musicians featured in the Presentation.

BB King

Robert Johnson

Mamie Smith

Muddy Waters

Kirk Fletcher

Further Reading

Ali Toure’s sound combined the traditional sounds of two different continents of music: The Blues and East African tribal music.

Ali Farka Toure

John Lee Hooker's life closely mirrored the story of The Blues: from acoustic country music to a hard-edged urban sound, & from the Delta to the digital age.

John Lee Hooker

'The Great Migration' describes the movement of African-Americans from the Southern States to the Northern cities after WW1, taking along their music & culture.

The Great Migration

Congo Square in the vieux carré of New Orleans pounded to the sound of African drums in the days of slavery, but now it's a Heritage Site, Louis Armstrong Park.

Congo Square